Jasper Wijkhuijs
NETHERLANDS -
Master in Management
& MSc Aerospace
Management double degree

TBS Education offers students the opportunity to get a double master's degree through initially doing the Master in Management before choosing a specialization MSc for their second degree. What I enjoyed within the MiM is the setup of the year. In the first semester the students go through an intense few months, in which students receive classes in all disciplines within the field of business. The second semester focuses on daily practicalities and norms within business. I really enjoyed being exposed to real professionals.

Finally, the level of flexibility TBS Education offers students is unparalleled. Students can choose their subjects for the second semester based on their personal interests. Students also can attend classes in any of the TBS Education campuses, and can take a gap year in order to gain some professional experience.

Besides the academics, you will leave TBS Education with a network others can only dream to have, and classmates turned lifelong friends with similar interests and ambitions.

Ikram Badri
MOROCCO - Master in Management &
MSc International Business double degree

Participating in this program has been a transformative journey that has equipped me with invaluable knowledge and skills, empowering me to achieve my professional goals. I strongly recommend TBS

Education and in particular the Master in Management for 3 main reasons: Firstly, the talented team of professors and international managers that teach us. Their expertise and dedication to their respective fields fostered an environment of excellence and encouraged us to push our boundaries. The professors were not only highly knowledgeable but also approachable and supportive. Secondly, TBS Education, as an international business school, allowed me to expand my network, the diverse cohort of students allowed us to gain different perspectives. Group projects nurtured essential teamwork and communication skills, preparing us to thrive in dynamic work environments. Thirdly, the sense of community is truly remarkable. The friendships I formed with my peers and the connections I made with alumni and industry experts have been invaluable. My experience in this master's program has been nothing short of exceptional.

Baris Gur
CYPRUS/TURKEY - Master in Management
& MSc International Business

As an alumni of TBS Education's Master in Management program, I can truly say that the education quality is not the same with other regular business schools. During the two years I spent in the program, besides learning the essential dynamics of business management, I also worked on real case studies related to the market conditions.

On the other hand, Toulouse is a great city to study in terms of limitless socialization and networking options.
