Iconic Postgraduate Design School in the Design Capital

Highly ranked Postgraduate Design School offering full range of Postgraduate courses (Italian and International accreditation). Recognised as one of the most iconic School by other international Institutions and Partners. Based in Milan, the world's capital of fashion and design.

Domus Academy was founded in Milan in 1982 as one of the first postgraduate design schools in Italy and as an open project revolving around the experience of Italian design and fashion. Over the years, it has established itself as a school in the full sense of the term: a place for postgraduate training and a research laboratory on the themes of innovation and design.

Our vision is to support next-generation designers to be system-game changers and leaders.

We are a visionary school of design research and experience, an open and collaborative environment to work on future-based projects. Following a peculiar learning methodology based on a range of varied pedagogical activities, we support talents in developing the mindset to find creative solutions in future scenarios and become rounded design professionals.

1-Year Academic Master

The Master's Programmes are workshop based, supplemented with seminars, lectures and fieldwork. Industry professionals and teaching staff guide students via individual coaching and mentorship.

Graduates from Domus Academy Master's Programmes earn an Academic Master's Degree (60 ECTS) accredited by the Italian Ministry for University and Research (MUR), in addition to a Domus Academy Diploma.

International Double Award Master

The Double Award Master's Programme path enables students to obtain both an Academic Master's Degree (60 ECTS) validated by the Italian Ministry for University and Research (MUR) and a Master of Arts Degree (90 ECTS) with an international UK validation issued by Regent's University London.

2-Year Master of Arts

During the 2-Year Master of Arts students deepen their mastery of multidisciplinary design approaches over a longer curriculum. They work in a hybrid "phygital" environment, employing tools like artificial intelligence, algorithms, Web 3.0, and 3D printing to reshape the creative process. They learn to interact across a variety of audiences developing horizontal skillsets and lateral thinking abilities as requested by the latest market trends.

Upon completion of programme, they receive a Master of Arts Degree (120 ECTS) accredited by the Italian Ministry for University and Research (MUR), in addition to a Domus Academy Diploma.

Learning Methodology

Domus Academy encourages students to work in a cross-disciplinary way and apply the school's learning by designing methodology. It balances the theoretical with the practical by integrating classroom theory with workshop practice, boosting hands-on training with cultural research, and forming multidisciplinary project teams to enrich individual creative talents.

Industry-leading Faculty

Central to the success of the Domus Academy approach are its professors: capable educators who are also highly talented designers. Some of our present and past collaborators include: Fernando Alberti, Andrea Banfi, Marina Baracs, Gianandrea Barreca, John Bennett, Nicholas Bewick, Maddalena Casadei, Matilde Cassani, Stefano Cardini, Silvio Cioni, Ildo Damiano, Antonio Di Domenico, Diego Dolcini, Dante Donegani, Federica Fragapane, Flatwig Studio, Joseph Forakis, Fosbury Architecture, Nima Gazestani, Matteo Ghidoni, Riccardo Grassi, Paolo Giachi, Il Prisma, Leap Factory, Francesco Librizzi, Michele Ignaccolo, Andrea Piccolo, Migliore + Servetto Architects, Marie Pierre Schickel, Valerio Sommella, Marina Spadafora, Studio Atto, Studio Pepe, Monica Tempesta, Mario Trimarchi, Sara Sozzani Maino and many others.

Milan

Design is part of the fabric of Milan. From the city's fashion tradition to its new role as a start-up hub, Milan is home to a thriving commercial design industry and a globally facing creative culture. Life in Milan moves at a relentless pace, in fact it is hard to remain unmoved or detached from all the cultural, social and business activities afoot. It follows that there is no better place to pursue a design education.

Semester Courses

Specifically thought for those who want to deepen their design studies in few weeks, the Semester Courses lead students to join selected theoretical courses with professionals, active learning sessions and workshops working in international and cross-disciplinary teams.

Online Preparatory Programme + in presence Master

The Domus Academy Preparatory Programme is an 8-week long series of intensive online courses which allows students to improve their knowledge and prepare for the challenging interdisciplinary approach of the Master's Degree Programmes.

Short Courses

Focusing on relevant and topical themes within the design fields, the courses provide recent graduates and young professionals the opportunity to enhance knowledge and learn new skills. Participants explore and exercise their abilities while acquiring new critical skills and perspectives to apply in their professional activities.

Design Experience Programmes

A unique series of intensive short courses, aiming at offering to the most talented students and promising international designers the opportunity to experience the Domus Academy learning methodology.

The workshops structure, made of lectures, visits, case histories and company's testimonials, completed by practical training, enables students to invest their time into an intensive experience, an "open mind" deepening into design issues that will help students in their last years of an undergraduate programme, postgraduate students and recent graduates to build a sensitive professional soul on a solid, strategic design basis.

Career Service and Industry Relations

Through career guidance, advice and trainings, the Career Service Office assists students in setting their professional goals, assessing their personal strengths and creative skills, and identifying the best professional experience opportunity.

Domus Academy has established an extensive network of connections and relationships with many of the most prestigious companies and studios.
